

TCFA/KCFA 2023 Convention – Speaker Bios

Julie Baker is a seasoned security professional with over 30 years of information technology and information security experience. She is currently the CISO of 1st Franklin Financial Corporation and has been with 1st Franklin for two years. Prior to joining 1st Franklin, Julie worked at TD Bank, one of the largest banks in Canada and the US. She was initially the Head of Application Security and then, for the last four years of her time there, she was the Head of Cyber Innovation and Emerging Technologies, based out of Tel Aviv, Israel. She established TD Bank's first Cyber Innovation Center in Tel Aviv and was instrumental in bringing the latest cyber technologies into the bank. Prior to that, Julie worked on Wall Street in New York City for Citigroup and Deutsche Bank in different information security and information technology roles.

Celia Winslow is a Senior Vice President and has been with the association since 2006. She leads AFSA's federal government affairs department, which promotes AFSA's mission of expanding and protecting access to consumer credit with policymakers on Capitol Hill, the administration, and federal regulators. In addition, she oversees AFSA's legal efforts. Her expertise covers a wide range of regulatory, legislative, and legal issues associated with consumer credit and she is a frequent speaker on those topics. She serves as the liaison to AFSA's Law Committee and Diversity and Inclusion Working Group.

Before joining AFSA, Celia worked in the Development Office at the Pontifical North American College. She has a Bachelor of Arts in Politics from The Catholic University of America.

Todd Phillips is the Senior Director of Sales for DDI Technology, an IAA Company. He is responsible for the sales of both the Electronic Lien & Title and Electronic Title & Registration products, working with over 2000 automobile dealers and 6000+ lenders nationwide. His 20 years of sales management experience, and industry knowledge in the titling space, allows for unique insight into the issues surrounding lien placement and portfolio management. Todd's background includes experience with both vehicle sales and commercial fleet leasing, in addition to working with large banks and credit unions.

Congressman Andy Barr

Full Biography

